She always craved oral sex play and wished she could enjoy it more often. Now she could. Her Ultimate Pleasure would be able to give her the intimate ecstasy she was looking for. First, she pressed the button to activate the vibration and then traced her body with the pulsating pinpoint pleasure. She knew this was going to feel so good deep inside her later—but first she wanted to explore the oral sensations.

She placed the oval cone of Her Ultimate Pleasure over her yearning mound. It perfectly cupped her labia, clitoris, and most sensitive lady bits. The pulsing, milking suction was perfectly timed to entice her soft skin, making her tender with sensation. It felt so incredible, as if her very essence was being seduced. She pressed another button and the motorized tongue began lapping her swollen clit. With each press, the smooth tongue sensually teased her sensitive sweet spot. She was enthralled with incredible pleasure as she explored all of the various tongue patterns.

This was truly the most amazing sensation combination she had ever felt! And then, like a dream, her climax embraced her with breathless trembles. Her Ultimate Pleasure made her sexual fantasy come true.
